

e-toursonline Interactive Media Privacy Policy

The <http://e-toursonline.com> Privacy Policy describes how we treat personal information when you use e-toursonline's products and services. In addition, the following describes our privacy practices that are specific to e-toursonline.

Personal information

- e-toursonline will only collect personal information given voluntarily through our website, newsletter subscription or when products and services are conducted on a regular basis.
- e-toursonline does not collect data using any type of spam or tracking devices. All personal information obtained through our website or newsletter is used only for communicating with clients on products and services we offer and is voluntary.
- e-toursonline will not sell, give or provide personal information to any third parties.

Uses

- Any personal information obtained by e-toursonline is maintained and processed in order to provide you personalized products and other services.
- All personal information e-toursonline collects and uses are to communicate with the intended client only.

Your choices

- You can choose not to give your personal information for any reason and contact us at (941) 795-6978 to speak to a representative.
- When receiving advertising, promotions or newsletters from e-toursonline, you can choose to unsubscribe at any time. If you choose to opt out, we will permanently remove your personal information from our system and inform you that you will no longer receive products and services from e-toursonline.

Information Sharing

- Some e-toursonline products and services are provided by third parties, who may receive and process your requests and preference settings for that section in order to provide their service. In some cases, other information may be processed and use of your information by these third parties is not governed by this Privacy Policy.
- e-toursonline may share aggregate statistics about usage with our business partners. We will not share personally identifying information with these partners or any third parties.